Dear Colleague,

You may be eligible to receive Tuition Exemption Benefits at Columbia University, Barnard College and Teachers College. The cost of tuition is exempt, based on your eligibility and benefits coverage; however, you are responsible for all fees and non-tuition charges related to your course(s) registration.

To receive Tuition Exemption for the Fall 2017 Term, you and/or your dependent must be eligible before the first day of classes.

If you’ve decided to take advantage of this benefit by enrolling in classes for the Fall 2017 Term, please submit all forms before the end of the Change of Program: Friday, September 15, 2017.

What You Need to Do
To get started:

- Log in to the CU Benefits Enrollment System with your UNI and password to:
  - Determine your Tuition Exemption Benefit eligibility status;
  - Confirm the number of courses covered; or
  - Print your eligibility form.

  Under “Actions,” select “Tuition Programs, Print Your Eligibility Form by Clicking Here.” Next, click “Tuition Exemption – for Your Yourself” or “Tuition Exemption – for Your Dependents.”

- Submit your form to Student Financial Services (SFS) or Bursar’s Office. The Tuition Exemption – For Yourself or For Your Dependent eligibility form must be completed, signed and submitted to SFS on your campus to be applied to you or your dependent’s student account.
