About This Communication

Benefits Highlights summarizes the benefits programs that are available to benefits-eligible employees of Columbia University. It does not include important information about exclusions and limitations. For additional details of benefits coverage, eligibility, limitations and exclusions, you must refer to the Summary Plan Descriptions (SPDs), the Summary of Benefits and Coverage (SBC), and the Benefits Brochure (Summary of Material Modifications – SMM) online at http://hr.columbia.edu/forms-docs/search. You may also want to request to receive a paper copy of an SPD or SMM by contacting the Benefits Service Center at 212-851-7000.

As a requirement of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, Columbia University must provide an SBC to all participants and their dependents. The SBC is designed to provide you with an easy-to-understand summary about a health plan’s benefits and coverage and to help you better understand and evaluate your health insurance choices. An SBC for each medical plan is available at http://hr.columbia.edu/forms-docs/search. You may request to receive a paper copy of any SBC by contacting the Benefits Service Center at 212-851-7000. You are entitled to receive these Plan documents under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). You also have other important rights and protections under ERISA, which are explained in more detail in the Summary Plan Descriptions. You can find the documents online at http://hr.columbia.edu/forms-docs/search. If there are any discrepancies between the information in this publication, verbal representations and the Plan documents, the Plan documents will always govern. Columbia University reserves the right to change or terminate these benefits Plans at any time. This publication is in no way intended to imply a contract of employment. The Columbia University Group Benefit Plan (the “Plan”) complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

Welcome to Columbia

We are pleased to share with you important information about the benefits options available to you and your eligible dependents. The majority of your benefits are provided through your Union’s insurance plans. Please consult your collective bargaining agreement or your union representative for more information.

Choose Your Coverage Carefully
Your 2018 elections will be in effect from January 1 or your date of hire (whichever is later) until December 31, 2018. Unless you have a Qualified Life Status Change, you will not have another opportunity to change your benefits coverage until the annual Benefits Open Enrollment held each fall.

Please keep in mind in order to have Flexible Spending Accounts, you must enroll online within 31 days of your date of hire. If you miss the deadline, you will not have these benefits.

Benefits Glossary
To learn more about the benefits terms used throughout this Guide, review the Glossary at http://hr.columbia.edu/find-out-about/benefits/glossary-terms.

Making Changes to Your Benefits

Qualified Life Status Changes
The IRS restricts when you can make changes to your Flexible Spending Account (FSA) elections during the year.

After new hire enrollment, or after annual Benefits Open Enrollment, you will only be able to change your FSA benefits for the remainder of the calendar year if you experience a Qualified Life Status Change.

If you experience a Qualified Life Status Change, go to the CU Benefits Enrollment system within 31 days of the event. The benefits changes must comply with IRS regulations and be consistent with the nature of your Qualified Life Status Change. In addition, you must provide proper documentation for your change, such as a birth certificate, marriage certificate or divorce decree. If you need assistance, please contact the Columbia Benefits Service Center at 212-851-7000.

Examples of a Qualified Life Status Change Include
- Marriage, divorce or the beginning or end of a same-sex domestic partnership
- Birth, adoption or placement for adoption or foster care
- A dependent losing eligibility for coverage
- Job promotions and/or transfers that change benefits offerings

For More Information
To learn more, go to http://hr.columbia.edu/qualified-life-status-changes.
Tax Savings Accounts

Columbia University offers several tax savings accounts, including the Healthcare and Dependent Care Flexible Spending Accounts (FSA)s and the Transit/Parking Reimbursement Program (T/PRP) account. Using these tax savings accounts could save you hundreds of dollars on eligible healthcare, dependent care, transit and/or parking expenses.

Flexible Spending Accounts
Flexible Spending Accounts allow you to contribute pre-tax money to reimburse yourself for eligible healthcare and dependent day care expenses. You must enroll within 31 days of hire or a Qualified Life Status Change and you must re-enroll each year during Benefits Open Enrollment to take advantage of FSAs.

Columbia University offers two types of FSAs that are administered by UnitedHealthcare (UHC):

- Healthcare FSA for eligible healthcare expenses, including medical, prescription drug or dental copays and deductibles, as well as vision or hearing services. For a list of eligible expenses, please visit www.myuhc.com or IRS Publication 502.

- Dependent Care FSA for eligible child or adult day care expenses for your dependents, such as licensed day care centers and nursery schools, before-school or after-school programs and home attendants. Note: for dependents’ health-related expenses, use the Healthcare FSA.

How FSAs Work
FSAs allow you to set aside pre-tax money to reimburse yourself for eligible expenses. Since your FSA contributions reduce your gross taxable income, you pay lower taxes and take home more money.

If you elect an FSA, you contribute to it in equal installments two pay periods per month throughout the calendar year.

You cannot change your election amount during the calendar year unless you have a Qualified Life Status Change. Please refer to “Making Changes to Your Benefits” for more details.

Keep in Mind
If your medical expenses exceed 7.5% of your adjusted gross income and you itemize deductions, you may be better off deducting your expenses from your income tax rather than using the Healthcare FSA. You may want to consult with a tax adviser or financial professional to determine which works best for you.

Also, you may use the Dependent Care FSA, the federal tax credit or a combination of both for your eligible dependent care expenses. Your choice will depend on your family income and the number of dependents you have in eligible day care programs. Generally, if your family’s adjusted gross income exceeds $40,000, you may save more in taxes using the Dependent Care FSA. You can also go to www.irs.gov/taxtopics/tc602.html or consult your tax adviser or financial professional.
Make the Most of Your FSA with myuhc.com

1. Go to myuhc.com and click on “Register Now.” To register, enter your Social Security Number, date of birth and Group Number (902784).

2. Click on “View Account Balances,” then select “Flexible Spending Account(s).”

Don’t Have a Health Plan with UHC?
You do not need to be a member of a Columbia health plan to participate in an FSA. To manage your FSA expenses, you can register using your Social Security Number and date of birth. Under group/account number, enter “902784.”

Requesting Reimbursement
To learn more about how to request FSA reimbursement and obtain copies of the forms, go to http://hr.columbia.edu/fsas-how-to-request-reimbursement.

Health Care Spending Card
After you elect the FSA, UHC will send two Health Care Spending Cards in your name to your home mailing address. These cards are linked to any Healthcare and Dependent Care FSA accounts you elect. When you incur an eligible healthcare or dependent care expense, such as prescription drugs or office visit copays, you can use your Health Care Spending Card to pay for the expense at participating locations.

If you do not use your card at the time of purchase, keep your receipt(s). You may need to submit an out-of-network medical claim to UHC so you can 1) be reimbursed for the out-of-pocket expense from your FSA; and/or 2) to substantiate your expenses with UHC if you are manually filing a claim.

Manual Claim for Reimbursement
You can request reimbursement by:
- Submitting a form to receive reimbursement from your FSA. You may mail or fax the form to UHC.
- Submitting claims for reimbursement online directly to UHC via www.myuhc.com.

When you submit a claim, you will receive a check at your home mailing address or you can sign up for direct deposit of your FSA claims by visiting www.myuhc.com and enrolling via the secure website.

Forfeiture Rule
The IRS has strict rules regarding FSAs. It is important to estimate your expenses carefully, incur your claims by December 31 and make sure that your claims for the calendar year are received by the FSA administrator (UHC) no later than March 31 of the following year. A balance of up to $500 in your Healthcare FSA can be rolled over to the next plan year. However, any money left in your Dependent Care FSA will be forfeited.

Important Information
If you leave the University or become ineligible for benefits, you can only be reimbursed for expenses incurred prior to your employment end date or the date you become ineligible for benefits. Any remaining funds would be forfeited.
Eligibility Regarding Same-Sex Domestic Partners
IRS regulations do not allow you to use FSA funds for expenses incurred by or on behalf of same-sex domestic partners, or their children, unless they qualify as your legal tax dependents.

Healthcare FSA
The current IRS limit for the Healthcare FSA is $2,600.* You can elect between $120 and $2,600* in this account to cover out-of-pocket eligible healthcare expenses for yourself, your spouse and your children, even if you do not elect to cover them under Columbia University benefits plans.

If you are hired after the beginning of the year, you can elect to contribute the maximum contribution limit ($2,600*) provided you have not contributed during the year to an FSA with Columbia University. If you are married, your spouse may also contribute $2,600* to an FSA sponsored by his/her employer. The full annual election amount is available for claim reimbursement as of your account’s effective date. You may elect a Healthcare FSA even if you are enrolled in Medicare.

Note: To be eligible to participate in the Healthcare FSA, children must be your dependents for income tax purposes. Examples of eligible Healthcare FSA expenses include medical and dental plan deductibles and copays, as well as prescription eyeglasses and contact lenses and solution. For more information on healthcare expenses for which you can use your Healthcare FSA, go to http://hr.columbia.edu/forms-docs/eligible-fsa-expenses.

For More Information
To learn more about the Healthcare FSA, go to http://hr.columbia.edu/union-flexible-spending-accounts.

* IRS limits are subject to change.
Dependent Care FSA

The Dependent Care FSA helps you pay the cost of dependent day care services for an adult or child because you work or attend school. If you are married, your spouse must also work or go to school while you are at work in order to qualify for this coverage. You can contribute up to $5,000* to a Dependent Care FSA. If you are married, the IRS has several guidelines that might affect how much you can deposit:

- If your spouse also has a Dependent Care FSA at work and you file a joint tax return – your combined deposits cannot exceed $5,000.
- If you are married and file separate income taxes – the most you can contribute is $2,500.

You can be reimbursed for the cost of services provided for:

- Dependent children under the age of 13. If your child will turn 13 during the year, you can submit claims only for expenses incurred up to the child’s birthday. You may be eligible to un-enroll from the Dependent Care FSA once your child reaches age 13 as part of a “Change in Dependent Care Cost.”
- Other dependents, including a parent, spouse or spouse’s child who is physically or mentally unable to care for himself or herself.

Examples of eligible dependent care providers include child day care centers, summer day camps and before-school and after-school programs. For additional information on eligible dependent care providers, go to http://hr.columbia.edu/fsas-eligible-dependent-care-providers.

Your reimbursement for dependent care cannot exceed the balance in your account at the time of your claim. If the money in your account is insufficient to pay your claim, the balance will be paid later as your pre-tax payroll contributions accumulate in your account. When you incur an eligible dependent care expense, you can use your Health Care Spending Card to pay for the expense at participating locations. The card will only accept expenses up to the balance in your account at the time of use.

* IRS limits are subject to change.

Important

If you leave the University or become ineligible for benefits, you can only be reimbursed for expenses incurred prior to your employment end date or the date you become ineligible for benefits. Any remaining funds would be forfeited.
Child Care Benefit (Members of Local 100)

Eligible members of Local 100 can elect to receive up to a $2,000 contribution from Columbia to a Dependent Care FSA. If you elect this benefit during the year, you will receive a prorated portion of the benefit.

To be eligible for this benefit, you must meet all of the eligibility criteria below:

- Be a full-time, benefits-eligible member of Local 100 with an Annual Benefits Salary of less than or equal to $120,000.*
- Have a dependent child under the age of five and not yet attending kindergarten who:
  - Has been verified by the Columbia Benefits Service Center as an eligible dependent; and
  - Meets the IRS definition of a tax dependent.
- Elect to participate in the Child Care Benefit as a new hire, during the annual Open Enrollment period or if you experience a Qualified Life Status Change.

There is a limit of a single benefit per family regardless of the number of eligible children, and regardless of whether both parents are eligible members of Local 100.

Members of Local 100 who receive the Child Care Benefit can also contribute personal pre-tax payroll contributions to their Dependent Care FSA. The total contributions between the Dependent Care FSA and the Child Care Benefit cannot exceed the $5,000 annual maximum.

* IRS limits are subject to change.
Transit/Parking Reimbursement Program

The Transit/Parking Reimbursement Program (T/PRP) is a convenient way to pay commuting expenses using pre-tax dollars. You may enroll in or make changes to the T/PRP at any time during the year.

How the Program Works

You may participate in either the Transit or Parking Reimbursement Program—or both. Transit Reimbursement Program funds can be used for commuting expenses on any public transit commuter system. Parking Reimbursement Program funds can be used to pay for parking if you drive to work or to a location where you board mass transit for work.

You choose a monthly election, which is available to you as of the first of each month. Your contributions will then be deducted in equal installments from two paychecks each month. For example, if you choose a Transit account of $130 per month that is effective July 1, you can access the full $130 as of July 1.

Any unused funds will roll over from month to month. For example, if you take a vacation during the month of August, the unused August balance will roll over to September. The funds are available to you as long as your monthly spending does not exceed the IRS allowable monthly amount.

If you leave the University or become ineligible for benefits, you can only be reimbursed for expenses incurred prior to your termination date or the date you became ineligible for benefits. If you use funds that were not deducted from your paychecks, you will be responsible for repaying those funds to the University.
